This week we are remembering all who live & work in

Longstaff Way & Harrier Close

Salvation Army Kings Ripton Court

During June we will be remembering Kings Ripton Court in our prayers.

The Salvation Army operates over 80 'Lifehouses' of which Kings Ripton Court is one. They are places where people can get support with their housing issues and also find support with other aspects of their lives such as employment, debt problems, training, spirituality, loneliness, addiction, or mental health.

Kings Ripton Court provides support with up to two years self-catering accommodation for 16 to 25 year old young adults. During this time residents are guided through a structured programme of personal discovery and life-skill sessions with the goal of achieving independent accommodation.

Residents are encouraged to engage in education, training, or employment and to take an active part in the decisions made within the service.

Dying and Rising with Christ

¹What then are we to say? Should we continue in sin in order that grace may increase? ²By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? ³Do you not know that all of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? ⁴Therefore we were buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life. ⁵For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. ⁶We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, so we might no longer be enslaved to sin. ⁷For whoever has died is freed from sin. ⁸But if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. ⁹We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. ¹⁰The death he died, he died to sin once for all, but the life he lives, he lives to God. ¹¹So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Pat Goodliff

As a celebration of having made it to 80 earlier this year - and especially as a nod of thanks to the good people at Addenbrookes Hospital for playing a big part in helping me get there, after I was diagnosed with Kidney Cancer a couple of years back - I'll be jumping out of a plane on July 18th (weather permitting).

I've wanted to do a parachute jump for a long time, but just to make sure that I don't have a sudden change of heart when the plane gets up to 13,000 feet, I'd be really grateful if you would consider sponsoring me, in aid of Cancer Research UK, to spur me on.

This is also in memory of my son Paul and niece Mandy, who both sadly died of Cancer in recent years.

I made a remarkable recovery and I attribute much of that recovery to my friends at All Saints Hartford Church fervently praying for me, which they still continue to do. I faced the surgery knowing that God was by my side and I felt His closeness and trusted in Him completely.

It will be greatly appreciated to visit my JustGiving page and for any sponsorship that you are able to give, for what I'm sure you'll agree is a very worthy cause. Here is the link to my JustGiving page ;

The Mission of the Twelve

²⁴“A disciple is not above the teacher nor a slave above the master; ²⁵it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!

Whom to Fear

²⁶“So have no fear of them, for nothing is covered up that will not be uncovered and nothing secret that will not become known. ²⁷What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light, and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops. ²⁸Do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, fear the one who can destroy both soul and body in hell. ²⁹Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father. ³⁰And even the hairs of your head are all counted. ³¹So do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows. ³²“Everyone, therefore, who acknowledges me before others, I also will acknowledge before my Father in heaven, ³³but whoever denies me before others, I also will deny before my Father in heaven.

Not Peace, but a Sword

³⁴“Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace but a sword. ³⁵For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law, ³⁶and one's foes will be members of one's own household. ³⁷“Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me, ³⁸and whoever does not take up the cross and follow me is not worthy of me. ³⁹Those who find their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it.
